Mr. Pokee

Description of the story/idea

The idea:

The main character is a little cactus called Mr. Pokee who is standing on a shelf in a shop waiting to be chosen from the customers. Right next to him are standing 2 little flowers that are also pretty. He is so cute and beautiful, but he is also so pokee and the customers are often scared that he can be harmful so they prefer buying the flowers. He is standing there with the sweetest face possible, trying to be more attractive, but because of his appearance they think that he is not good and can hurt them. But actually in his soul he is the sweetest person, but because people judge on the appearance first, he is so lonely and sad.

Interaction : people can choose which flower to buy. If they choose Mr. Pokee he is happy.

The message:

Don't judge people on their appearance. Give everyone a chance.

Genre / mood:

true story, real world, enlightening
